Jr Women Collect $200 For Children

More than $200 was collected by Junior Woman's Club members in the sale of Christmas cards to help crippled and handicapped children throughout the state. Approximately $120 will go to Camp Easter Seal to purchase equipment and to assist in the building program there. About $80 will be retained by the local club to send a boy or girl of this county to Camp Easter Seal next summer, according to the project chairman, Mrs. Bob Mountcastle.

This figure is more than double the amount given last year. Mrs. Montgomery said. "For the most part, new members of the club did the work of taking orders and asking for contributions. They deserve a lot of credit for this splendid report. And we want to thank all the businessmen and individuals who have contributed so generously to help the children of our county and state."

The cards were scheduled to arrive for distribution this week.

Camp Easter Seal, a summer treatment center, is supported as a special project by the Junior Womans Clubs throughout the state in connection with the Virginia Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Birthday Gift

Mrs. Nellie Schweizer, of Appomattox, presented the pastor of the local Presbyterian Church with an unusual gift recently. It is a 35 year old cookie jar, a prize possession of hers dating back to another celebration. The cookie container was originally a gift made to her by the Sunday School class she was then teaching.

Inside the jar she packed old fashioned butter cookies. These were made from a recipe of her husband's, a professional baker.

The M. G. Stimpsons were pleased with the gift. They sampled the cookies, and report that another "family member" also finds them delicious. Their new kitten, a gift of still another friend, eats them almost as fast as they do.

Jr. Woman's Club Announces Xmas Card Contest

Amateur artists are invited to enter a special Christmas card contest sponsored by the Appomattox Jr. Womans Club, the Virginia Society for Crippled Children and Adults may use the winning design for their Christmas card of 1964. The Stable Winner and an article concerning the artist will be published in the Virginia Society's quarterly publication "The Open Door" with a circulation of 23,000. Also, the Virginia Society for Crippled Children hopes to acknowledge the winner in some other way.

Local plans are not yet complete, but Appomattox Juniors did vote to join with Jr. Clubs throughout the state in the project. The Valley Junior Woman's Club of Roanoke originated the project and obtained the approval of the Va. Federation of Women's Clubs President, Mrs. Giles C. Engledove and the Junior Director, Mrs. W. A. Watson, III.

Here are the rules:

.1 Art work should not be smaller than 8" by 10". Larger designs should be in proportion to the standard 8" by 10" so that they can be reproduced in quantity.

2. Anyone, any age, other than professionals, may enter.

3. Designs may be in color using any three basic colors and the resulting colors derived from these three hues. Designs may also be in black and white if the artist intends them to be reproduced as such.

Any art medium or paper which can be reproduced may be used. All entries must be in the form of final art for reproduction as is.

5. It must be borne in mind that the card produced each year must appeal to the widest area of the public. It is suggested that you work from a religious theme: a deviation of Tiny Tim from "A Christmas Carol" or a winter landscape. A Santa Claus theme is acceptable providing it incorporated the use of the crippled child. However, novelty and humorous themes are not acceptable.

6. Each winning entry from each District will become the exclusive property of the Society and use of the final winning entry will be at the discretion of the Society.

One winner from the Alec Kyle District will be selected to be submitted at the State Woman's Club convention in April where a first and second prize winner will be selected and submitted to the Society.

Jr. Woman's Club president, Mrs. W. E. Cheatham, announced that it is hoped that entries will be received from Appomattox and surrounding counties. Seal for the contest will be stapled child's name, age, address and the name of the Woman's Club sponsoring the child.

The deadline for the contest is January 1, 1963.
